- The group met with Eric, assistant VP of IT department and Trina to discuss about the project and what software/hardware they will be able to provide us.
- We had two group meetings this week, and we decided to install SQL server on our own laptops in the mean time for testing. While waiting for the IT department to assign us a test server.
- On Friday, we tried to meet with our advisor to update him with the details of the IT meeting. But he wasn't in his office, so we emailed him about setting up a meeting early this week.
