Weekly status:
There was not much group progress this week. However, we did not expect there to be much progress. Since our members were scattered for vacation, the work I had assigned was more or less individual. I was in California for much of this time, and to my knowledge, no official meetings were held with the possible exception of one between Rich and Sheila. Nonetheless, I believe much of the work for the midterm report is now complete. After submitting the report tomorrow, we are in the home stretch. I do not expect an easy road to design day, but I think we can present a respectable project. I'll try to discuss an immediate strategy (while Zach is still away) in the meeting this afternoon.

Weekly report is due to Senior Design Coordinator and TA by Noon Monday. Email submission is greatly preferred - submit using WebCT, email to sd@koala.ece.stevens-tech.edu or individual emails. Copy should be sent to advisor
